

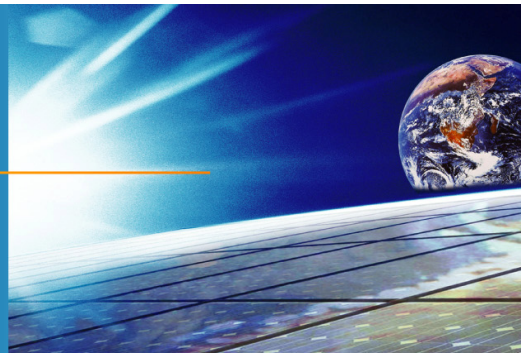

PHOTOVOLTAIC Fab Managers Forum

20–22 March 2011 | Berlin, Germany

Sponsorship opportunities at the 5th PV Fab Managers Forum in Berlin

The PV Fab Managers Forum is the place where selected technology and manufacturing experts debate roadmaps towards Grid Parity by addressing critical issues in materials, technology, manufacturing of solar cells, thin film panels, solar modules, solar systems and logistics. Achieving higher efficiency at lower costs are drivers for further market growth and prosperity in the sector. The Forum will be attended by executives and experts from leading solar players, institutes, universities and related stake-holders.

Sponsoring the PV Fab Managers Forum event makes attendees aware of you as a vendor or partner in the European photovoltaic industry and will leave a positive and committed picture in peoples' mind.

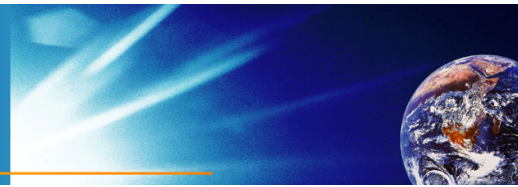

Via PV-FMF sponsorship you can:

- Build awareness among cell, thin film panels, modules, equipment and material manufacturers from over 16 different countries
- Address over 2400 executives via media and direct pre-event promotions
- Reach 200-250 delegates onsite whereof 70% are Executive and Senior Management
